MORTALE®

EXPEDITION OF DEATH

Each game booklet contains an illustration for the respective character as well as a detailed role description. We recommend that you hand out the booklets to your guests two to three days before the game, so that everyone can prepare in time. You can use your support code to easily download all role descriptions and email them to your guests.

No one has to dress up to participate in the game, but it's much more fun. Your guests can let their imagination run wild with their costumes if they want to.

THOMAS RIDER (34)

RUTH VALENTINE (27)

EVE SPARROW (28)

As an expedition team, you wear practical and robust clothing that is suitable for working outdoors and in dusty environments. Of course you can bring typical utensils and tools like: map, compass, brush, magnifying glass, pen + notepad, camera, small marker flags, dustpan, spade, sieve, barrier tape, small plastic bags to collect artifacts.

GUSTAVO NAVARRO (63)

You're an old-fashioned political macho. You wear a linen suit with a shirt. A thick cigar, gold rings and gelled hair completes your outfit.

ALBERTO NAVARRO (30)

As the future folk star of Peru you will wear a traditionally sparkling and colourful outfit. As an accessory, a microphone would go well with it.
